below entitled "Damages," which section, and the averments set forth therein are incorporated herein by reference.

VI. THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

41. Plaintiff's re-allege each and every allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 40, inclusive, as if the same were specifically set forth in this Paragraph 41.

42. At the time and place of the events described herein, the Defendants owed a duty of reasonable care to the Plaintiff to avoid causing injury to Plaintiff Michael Bills.

43. The intentional acts and omissions of the Defendants as alleged above inflicted physical injury and great emotional harm and distress to Plaintiff Michael Bills.

44. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff Michael Bills has suffered physical injury accompanied by intense emotional distress; he has been severely injured; has suffered the pain inflicted by the fears, anxieties, angers, frustrations, and misery accompanying his injuries.

45. As a direct and proximate result of the acts and omissions of the Defendants, Plaintiff Michael Bills suffered a severe head injury including a laceration to his head, which went down to his skull, and the resulting disability and fear, pain and misery resulting therefrom.

46. The Defendants intentionally engaged in conduct that Defendants knew would directly result in harming the Plaintiff and which did in fact result in the emotional distress placed on and continuing to the Plaintiff.

47. The Defendants' actions were of such nature as to be considered outrageous, unruly, disrespectful, dangerous, and intolerable.

48. As a direct result and consequence of the Defendants' behavior and intentional acts herein, Plaintiff Michael Bills has suffered, and is continuing to suffer emotional distress for which he is rightly entitled to recover damages from the Defendants.

49. As a direct result and proximate result and consequence of the behavior and intentional acts and omissions of the Defendants, the Plaintiff has suffered, and will continue to suffer damages for emotional distress for which the Defendants are responsible, these injuries and damages are more particularly set forth below in the section of this complaint "Damages."
